CISS School Bus Rules

1. Students should arrive at the designated school bus stop on time and parent should inform on the school bus WeChat group in advance if student will not take the bus.
2. If students miss the bus home as a result of their own actions, they will need to call their parents or guardians to pick them up.
3. To ensure timely departure, students should use the washroom and take care of any other errands as soon as class is dismissed. Students should be on the bus at least five minutes prior to departure. All students must remain on the bus once they get on. They should not wait until the last minute to use the washroom, visit the café, etc.
4. Students must fasten their seat belts when they are on the school bus. Standing or walking inside the school bus while it is in motion is strictly forbidden.
5. Students must sit in the seat designated for them by the bus monitor. Students may not change seats without permission from the bus monitor. Any arguing over seat assignments or unauthorized seat changes will result in referral to the Homeroom Teacher or Principal.
